Free Composting Workshop

Saturday, April 21 9:30 am to 11:30 am
Walnut Senior Center

Free, but pre-registration is requested

In honor of Earth Day 2012, a presenter from the County of Los Angeles Smart Gardening Program will conduct this free workshop. Composting is the way to recycle your yard and kitchen waste into nutrient-rich soil for your yard or garden. Composting is also a critical step in reducing the amount of garbage sent to landfills for disposal.

Valley Vista Services is co-sponsoring this workshop which will include a raffle for participants at the workshop. Raffle items may include composting bins as well as other garden-related items. General information on how to purchase composting bins will also be provided.

To register, or for more information, please call the Walnut Community Services Department at 909-598-5605.

Chase Comes to Walnut

If you visit the Lemon Creek Village (Vons center), you probably have noticed some renovations happening to the Blockbuster and Master Lube buildings. Chase Bank has remodeled the existing building to a full service branch office complete with a drive-up teller and two drive-up ATMS. The address of Chase Bank is 300 N. Lemon Avenue. The bank is 6,000 square feet. The bank hopes to be open for business by Valentine's Day.

Curb Painting Begins in Walnut

The Walnut City Council approved a solicitation permit for Canning Hunger. Canning Hunger is a non-profit organization that solicits donations for its curb painting services. Donations collected are used to provide food for agencies and organizations to be distributed at no costs to those in need.

Prior to any curb painting, every resident will receive a door hanger with information about the services as well as additional information on who to contact if you have questions. All donations are voluntary and collected only after work is completed.

Solicitors representing Canning Hunger will be identified by their Canning Hunger T-Shirt, Canning Hunger Identification Card and each individual will have a copy of the City Permit. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact the City of Walnut Business License Department at (909) 595-7543 ext. 503.
